Thousands of reasons to move to a Peet Limited estate today

First homebuyers are encouraged to secure their preferred address at a Peet estate today before time runs out to gain the Federal Governments' generous first homeowners grant.

To be eligible for the $21,000 cash bonus, first homebuyers need to purchase land and sign a building contract before 30 June 2009 and ensure their home will start construction by mid-December 2009*.

The time between making the decision to purchase land and signing a building contract can be up to several months, so buyers should act now to avoid disappointment.

To make the decision easier, Peet is offering a great range of affordable homesites in sought-after locations close to transport, shops, services and community amenities.

Peet is also supporting buyers with its Flying Start package, which offers thousands of dollars in bonuses for items such as retaining walls, side and rear fencing and front garden landscaping.

When coupled with low interest rates and stamp duty concessions on land valued up to $400,000, there is currently thousands of good reasons to purchase a new homesite at a Peet estate in WA today.
